SPECIALIZED AND UNIQUE IMMERSION TRAINING

ON INTENSIVE FAMILY INTERVENTIONS

for clinicians working with post-separation problems
where a child resists contact with a parent

December 3 & 4, 2015

Dex Media Hotel and Conference Center

(Conveniently located on the grounds of the Dallas, Texas airport)

Follow a family role-play over two days of an intensive family intervention with a real time guiding narrative provided by the training director. The training also includes small group discussions with the Overcoming Barriers training team that includes Founders and innovators:

Robin M. Deutsch, Ph.D., ABPP,
Barbara Jo Fidler, Ph.D., C.Psych
& Peggie Ward, Ph.D.

Mental health professionals face significant challenges assisting families when a child is resisting contact with a parent after separation/divorce.

This 25 hour immersion training offers an exciting and innovative training experience using actors role playing a typical family. Through a unique combination of advance webinars, observation of the live intervention with the "family" and debriefing time with clinicians, trainees will learn the nuts and bolts of the intensive whole-family intervention from intake and contracting, through multiple clinical interventions to aftercare planning.

The training team of Overcoming Barriers board members are all experienced clinical psychologists and educators who have decades of experience working with high-conflict families, presenting and writing for international audiences.

A certificate of attendance will be provided and continuing education credit has been applied for .
